

Doggie Time!

If you own a dog, you are probably the center of your dog's universe. He depends on you for just about everything. Listed below are just a few of the many needs that owners fulfill for their dogs and about how often they occur. Using the schedule below, fill in your current activities such as school, chores, sports practice, etc. Then fill in the dog's daily schedule around your planned activities.

Now review your schedule. Do you have time to properly care for a dog?

Daily

- Food and Fresh Water
- Exercise
- Love and Attention
- Brushing

Weekly

- Pick-up Dog Waste in Yard
- Clean the Dog's Crate
- Wash Bedding
- Brush teeth

Monthly

- Flea and Tick Prevention
- Bath
- Haircut (if necessary)
- Nail Trimming
- Ear Cleaning

Annually

- Veterinarian Checkups
- Dog License Renewal

When first getting a dog, additional time is needed for:

- Housebreaking
- Socialization
- Training

My Daily Schedule
6 a.m.
8 a.m.
10 a.m.
Noon
2 p.m.
4 p.m.
6 p.m.
8 p.m.
9 p.m.	